Here is how #Scientology engages in human trafficking at its Sea Org facilities in the U.S. Pls share far & wide. #ScientologyTheAftermath

> Recruit low-income Scientologists in countries like Russia, Mexico & Venezuela. Tell them if they will agree to work for the Scientology in the U.S, the church will arrange for them to get an R1 Religious Visa & airfare to the U.S. Once the recruit arrives to the U.S., the church confiscates their visa "for safe keeping", leaving the recruit unable to leave without the church's permission. The church denies requests to return home to renew the visa citing current projects are too urgent to put on hold. The church does this because they believe if the person returns home they will not come back. Once the person has overstayed their visa, they have a new problem. Now, if they leave the country, the U.S. won't allow them to re-enter for about 10 years because they violated the terms of their 1st visa. The church uses this fact to deny all future requests to visit their family. This is how foreigners become trapped at Scientology facilities in the U.S., working 100+ hrs/wk, without access to their visas and unable to leave when they want to. Further, they are paid less than $50/wk so can't afford their own airfare home. They often have no bank account or driver's license.

So do I understand this right - Sen Flake will vote No next week on Kavanaugh unless FBI does an Investigation, with a time limit of one week -

Is that right?

Moxie Magee @MoxieMagee · 1h

Holding my breath, squeezing my womb, scratching out Candidates, 1:30 pm, Friday, September 28, 2018. Good god, this is 2018 and I'm still counting on old white dudes from the 50's to allow me to breathe. smdh

Moxie Magee @MoxieMagee · 4h

Grassley is now shading the American Bar Association. And there you have it folks.

Not much more to say,

Moxie Magee @MoxieMagee · 5h

Deep breaths, long views: The filth, perversions of human forces, corruption, masked monstrosities - they have all been exposed to the light now. This is no small feat. Momumental game changer. Patience, persistence, progress. Painful slog thru the mud yes but we're getting there

2

Moxie Magee @MoxieMagee · 18h
Today I looked for Courage, and she held out past her fear.

Tomorrow I'll look for Democracy, but he''ll be out for a beer.

1 2

Moxie Magee @MoxieMagee · 22h
I think Kavanaugh passed the job interview. He's shown me he'd make the perfect, animated, experienced Judge of Beer.

I unequivocably do Not want him to be the Judge of Birth Control.

Moxie Magee @MoxieMagee · 22h
Graham right now is reminding me of all the other @GOP and friends who acted exactly like he is now, as loudly and proudly, but are now in jail or under investigation for sexual abuse or corruption.

Moxie Magee @MoxieMagee · 22h
Kavanaugh after schooling us that Catholic school + beer + high school calendars + @GOP railroad "hearing" is the same thing as an FBI Investigation. Now, I'm no legal or political scholar, but I know it's not the same. Do we want a Supreme Judge who doesn't?
Now Graham splodes

Moxie Magee @MoxieMagee · 22h
Mr Durbin reopened the door for Kavanaugh to get what he claims he wants - a fair hearing which means, demand an FBI investigation right this minute. And Grassley's head explodes.

Moxie Magee @MoxieMagee · 22h
I'm imagining the FBI Investigators rifling through documents:

1) All those years in the WH under Bush - nah -
2) High school calendar - yeah - that's all we need!

Moxie Magee @MoxieMagee · 22h
Kavanaugh is now squirming and dodging key questions that he should be answering without any problem and being beligerent. He's also acting like an entitled bully. Oops

1 8

Moxie Magee @MoxieMagee · 23h
Kavanaugh is giving more than I expected. He's affirming to me All the problematic qualities that's been brought up - and adding quite a few more. I've heard enough. In a nutshell, he's horrible at arguing Or judging or acting like a well balanced, rational, human being. Next!

Moxie Magee @MoxieMagee · 23h
Now Kavanaugh has the gaul to tell America we should listen to his friends from the Bush era. He won't allow us to see his actual record. Just his friends saying what a great guy he is - again. This is Supreme Justice? I'm afraid that is exactly how this type thinks. sheesh

1 4

Moxie Magee @MoxieMagee · 23h
Every American who drank beer = could be accused of assault.

Again, WTH is wrong with @GOP - I understand why they want fanatic right wing evangelical to do their bidding, but couldn't they find one that at least faked it better? These arguments are insane,

Moxie Magee @MoxieMagee · 23h
I don't know about anyone else, but when I cry, there's tears involved. Or at least wet, red eyes. Oh wait - there was that time I faked bumping into the kitchen drawer and raised my puppy eyes toward the cookie jar and my audience - Mom. No tears that time.

Moxie Magee @MoxieMagee · 23h
Um, is "Catholic, so nope, no sexual assaults" really Supreme Judge material?

1

Moxie Magee @MoxieMagee · 23h
Is this how Supreme Judges judge?

1

Show this thread

Moxie Magee @MoxieMagee · 23h
So now Kavanaugh's arguing about Dr Ford not attending his religious school, not in same school year, didn't travel in social circle. Right, because all sexual abusers only attack those who go to their school, same school year, same social circle. Also they mark their calendars.

my god - Kavanaugh's throwing down the conspiracy gauntlet and - did I just hear this - repeated Graham's threat "what goes around, comes around"
Also, we're supposed to disregard his actualy judgment record as "fake news", he's the victim, listen to only his friends, WHAT!

I saw the faces of these Republican leaders today. They were not laughing. They were smirking. I could see it. I hope I'm not the only one who saw it. I hope all Americans remember how they felt today on Nov 6 and vote. Vote for America's escape door. We must get back our country

JEWEL DICKSON ON RON DESANTIS' RESIGNATION

Today, Volusia County Democratic Chair Jewel Dickson released the following statement on Ron DeSantis' resignation:

"It's a good thing that Ron DeSantis' resignation received so much attention from the press because, otherwise, the people of District 6 would never have realized he was gone. DeSantis has spent his time in DC voting to take away our Medicare, cut our Social Security, and raise our health care costs. DeSantis never listened to the people of this district — because he didn't care about us. DeSantis avoided town halls, refused constituent meetings, and then voted against our interests in Washington. It's always been easier to find him on Fox News than anywhere in Volusia County. Ron DeSantis quit on his constituents

Tips for calling your senators about the Kavanaugh vote:
1. Make sure to call the local office and speak to a person, do not leave a message or email
2. Start by asking how the senator plans to vote and get an answer
3. ask for the NO vote

This Bob Woodward book is bananas.

> For the first eighteen months of his Presidency, Trump refused to enter the Oval Office alone. The President, who's daily routine begins around 4am, would sit in a high-backed chair outside and wait until the first staffers trickled in to the West Wing a few hours later.
> Initially, Trump told staffers "he didn't like having to do the work" of opening the heavy walnut doors leading into the office, but during one closed door meeting in early 2017 with then-Chief of Staff Reince Priebus, he let slip that "the ghosts are here, watching."
> Soon after, Trump began telling any staffer who would listen that the ghosts of past President's were haunting the Oval Office and would frequently "interfere with his work." According to staff members whom Trump confided in, Lyndon Johnson would torment the President by "flicking his ears" and "hurling important papers onto the floor."

Also Alleges He Had Another Wife At Time of Wedding

L. Ron Hubbard, 40, founder of the Dianetics Research Foundation, was sued for divorce today by his pretty wife, Sarah Northrup Hubbard, 25, on sensational charges that he had another wife when he married her, and subjected her to "systematic torture" which threatened her life.

In the suit filed by Attorney Caryl Warner, Mrs. Hubbard contended that Hubbard was already married to Margaret Grubb Hubbard on Aug. 10, 1946, when he married her, representing himself as single. More than a year later he obtained a divorce from the first wife, she asserted.

The complaint also outlined a long series of alleged abuses, charging that Hubbard "dominated her, physically and mental-

My official statement regarding my sexual assault case against John Travolta. cc: Marty Singer my life.

By sharing my experience via Twitter I am putting myself in a very vulnerable position, but if my story can help spread awareness and help at least 1 person, then I feel as though I've made the right decision with going forward and sharing details of my sexual assault.

These actors are predators & the men who are paid to protect them & enable their disgusting and inexcusable behavior are even worse & no better than the abusers.

When I made the conscious decision to share my experience, I knew that I would again be opening the doors to the

Make Any Problem Go Away" that was published on February 6, 2017.

The article starts off complimenting Marty, almost idolizing this man who threatens & belittles accusers, calling every accuser a liar with an agenda & fabricated story, & even pays off/threatens editors/reporters with lawsuits for anyone who dares to write a story regarding one of his clients, and even exchanges good PR stories for the bad ones.

I am fully prepared to be called a liar, an opportunist, and a gold digger, among other things. But the fact is and remains, I was sexually assaulted by John Travolta and there's not a threat or person in this

By sharing my experience via Twitter I am putting myself in a very vulnerable position, but if my story can help spread awareness and help at least 1 person, then I feel as though I've made the right decision with going forward and sharing details of my sexual assault.

These actors are predators & the men who are paid to protect them & enable their disgusting and inexcusable behavior are even worse & no better than the abusers.

When I made the conscious decision to share my experience, I knew that I would again be opening the doors to the

Make Any Problem Go Away" that was published on February 6, 2017.

The article starts off complimenting Marty, almost idolizing this man who threatens & belittles accusers, calling every accuser a liar with an agenda & fabricated story, & even pays off/threatens editors/reporters with lawsuits for anyone who dares to write a story regarding one of his clients, and even exchanges good PR stories for the bad ones.

I am fully prepared to be called a liar, an opportunist, and a gold digger, among other things. But the fact is and remains, I was sexually assaulted by John Travolta and there's not a threat or person in this couple decades. He was recently brought to Flag and put on the demeaning post of Letter Reg In-Charge.

A new command team composed of only veteran Flag SO members is being installed at AOSH EU, and all of the other SO bases, just like was done at PAC four years ago (The CLO, AOLA, ASHO and LA org all got new command teams composed of FSO/FLB staff).

I'd love to hear the spin for why, in this age of unprecedented worldwide expansion and success (kidding of course), ALL the top execs of the SO bases around the world need to be replaced by new, younger, more loyal (to DM) SO members.

Scientologists in Dublin peddle 'cure for autism'

Seán McCárthaigh
Senior Ireland News Reporter

A woman who says that the Church of Scientology in Dublin offered her a €1,600 detoxification programme that would cure her autistic son has complained to gardaí.

The church, which recently opened a centre in Firhouse, is likely to face questions about its alleged promotion of the controversial treatment. It follows claims by Fiona O'Leary, below, an autism rights campaigner, that a Scientology member based in the centre offered to sell her a "purification rundown" programme to treat her son.

Ms O'Leary founded Autistic Rights Together, which has been campaigning against anti-vaccine conspiracy theories and therapies that are falsely sold as a treatment for autism.

Purification Rundown is a trademark owned by the governing body of the Church of Scientology. The programme includes sweating in a sauna for several hours a day, an intense exercise regime and taking high doses of supplements for several weeks. It is used by the church's drug rehabilitation programme.

Niacin, otherwise known as Vitamin B3, is commonly used in doses of up to 5,000 mg as part of the programme. The daily recommended allowance for adults is about 15 mg.

Ms O'Leary said that she had been contacted by a representative of the Firhouse centre after she completed a personality test on a Scientology website. During the conversation she said that she was offered a copy of a book on purification rundown by L Ron Hubbard, the founder of Scientology, and then the treatment itself after she had asked about what it did. The Times has heard a recording of the conversation.

David Miscavige, the church's world leader, opened the centre in Firhouse

Ms O'Leary said that she was horrified to learn that the treatment was being sold with the promise that it worked "100 per cent" for conditions such as autism. A Scientologist also told her that they could provide a room to rent for €80 per week for anyone on the programme.

"Scientologists are anti-science and anti-psychiatry and encourage people to walk away from professional care," Ms O'Leary said.

"They believe that auditing and purification rundowns can keep you free from sickness. They also claim to cure many conditions which people may have."

She also pointed to claims about deaths among people who had had purification rundowns.

In 2003 during a legal action against the Church of Scientology, Michael Ryan, who was head of University College Dublin's pharmacology department, told the High Court that the treatment was not safe or scientifically verified.

Ms O'Leary said that people exposed to the treatment were being placed at risk and that vulnerable adults and children would be enticed to try it on the back of misleading health claims. "This is a public health issue and the government needs to be doing something about it," she said.

She has notified gardaí as well as the Medical Council and the Health Products Regulatory Authority.

A garda spokesman confirmed yesterday that a report had been filed with gardaí in Tallaght in relation to a health issue but declined to state if it related to the Church of Scientology.

The HPRA refused to comment. The Church of Scientology in Dublin did not respond to a request for comment.

Complaints have been posted on social media that events open to the public at the new centre are being used by Scientologists to recruit members.

The 1,200-seater venue is located in the former Victory Centre which the church bought for €6 million.

Its official opening was attended by David Miscavige, the movement's leader. Security was tight and several dozen protesters staged a demonstration outside.

#ENDMMSABUSE

14th July 2014

[redacted]

Dear Minister,

My attention has been drawn to what I would see as a dangerous form of quackery, which in essence entails aspects of child abuse, that is being introduced into Ireland. This is the so-called "cdprotocol" which involves administering a product called MMS to children, apparently with the promise that it can "cure" autism.

I know you will agree that this is obvious and dangerous nonsense. The MMS product is a form of bleach which is toxic – its adherents even claim that the side effects of the toxicity are evidence that the treatment is working. They appear to believe that autism is caused by parasites and that this bleach can eradicate them.

I am told that there are several practitioners of this dangerous method already in Ireland, and that Irish parents (many of whom would, as you know, be vulnerable to claims of this sort) are being encouraged to give this poison to their children.

I have written to the Health Products Regulatory Authority about the MMS product, and I would respectfully ask you to use your good offices to have this entire matter investigated.

With best wishes.

Yours sincerely,

Fergus

Ms O'Leary said that people exposed to the treatment were being placed at risk. "Both vulnerable adults and children would be enticed to try it on the back of misleading hope. This is a public health issue and the government needs to be doing something about it," she said.

She has notified gardaí as well as the Medical Council and the Health Products Regulatory Authority.

A garda spokesman confirmed yesterday that a report had been filed with gardaí in Tallaght in relation to a health issue but declined to state if it related to the Church of Scientology.

The HPRA refused to comment. The Church of Scientology in Dublin did not respond to a request for comment.

Complaints have been posted on social media that events open to the public at the new centre are being used by Scientologists to recruit members.

The 1,200-seater venue is located in the former Victory Centre which the church bought for €6 million.

Its official opening was attended by David Miscavige, the movement's leader. Security was tight and several dozen protesters staged a demonstration outside.

David Miscavige, the church's world leader, opened the centre in Firhouse

Hello friends, I want to tell you a win and encourage you to take the same action as I have if you haven't already.
Tonight I went into a local Target store and as soon as walked in I was hit with seeing this noisy and annoying SPs face on the front cover of People magazine trying to again slander our Church. This magazine was stock piled At every register. I was so angry I said to myself "that's it!" So I started to go to each checkstand magazine rack and pulled all that trash off every shelf. Then I took my shopping cart full of "trash" and asked to speak with the store manager. She came and I politely introduced myself, shook her hand and told her I am Scientologist. I explained that I am highly offended that this trash is on display at this store - my exact words. I explained that this horrible person is using her celebrity to spread lies and falsehoods about very good people doing very good things in the world and gave her examples. Then I politely asked that she not display this magazine any longer. This manager was incredibly gracious and with zero comm lag said yes absolutely she will keep them off the shelf and report the matter to the corporate office!! She said she would never want anything in the store to make me feel unwelcome or uncomfortable. Then she proceeded to personally go around to all the registers and magazine stands to verify I got all the magazines and she also pulled down the ones I missed! Then handed them all over to her assistant to get rid of them. She was so theta, and was very understanding, and obviously a social personality.
Can you imagine if we ALL did that?..... just spoke up and it would kick that suppression in the teeth and cut their reach big time. Booyah!!!

Once it is known that someone is represented by counsel, It violates California Rule of Professional Responsibility which precludes direct or indirect contact with a represented party, absent consent of the party's counsel.

My counsel gave no such permission.

inhibition or magnification, etc., are found, some in one pervert, some in another. And the sum of it is that the pervert is always a very ill person in one way or another, whether he is conscious of it or not. He is very far from culpable for his condition, but he is also so far from normal and so extremely dangerous to society that the tolerance of perversion is as thoroughly bad for society as punishment for it. Lacking proper means prior to this time, society has been caught between tolerance and punishment, and the problem of perversion has, of course, not been resolved. A bit off the subject here, but it can be remarked about perversion that the best previous explanation for it was something about girls becoming envious of Papa's penis or boys becoming upset about that terrible thing, the vulva, which Mama was incautious enough to show one day. It takes a great deal more than this utter tripe to make a pervert. It is, rather, something on the order of kicking a baby's head in, running over him with a steamroller, cutting him in half with a rusty knife, boiling him in Lysol and all the while with crazy people screaming the most horrifying and unprintable things at him. The human being is a very tough character. He is so confoundedly tough that he has whipped the whole animal kingdom and he can shake the stars. And when it comes to throwing his Second Dynamic out of balance, what that takes is straight out of Dante and Sax Rohmer combined. Hence the pervert, containing hundreds and hundreds of vicious engrams, has had little choice between being dead and being a pervert. But with an effective science to handle the problem, a society which would continue to endure perversion and all its sad

Amongst the vile abuse in a "petition" set up to bully and intimidate campaigner @fionapettit71 is the suggestion that because she has autism, her kids should be taken into care. How is the @Change allowing this vitriol to be posted on its site?

> their sources. This nutjob has said publicly her aspergers gives her destructive tendencies: https://www.irishexaminer.com/lifestyle/features/i-knew-i-was-different-long-before-i-was-diagnosed-with-aspergers-257774.html
> State agencies like HIQA NEED to get involved - she says she's got 5 kids, 2 of them autistic themselves and she's their sole carer????? WTF??? maybe instead of defaming people on social media, she should actually take care of her own kids or, better still for the kids own sake, let social services properly look after them whilst she spends some time in some state funded accomodation!!

There are parents in Ireland forcing their children to drink bleach, or giving them bleach enemas as a cure for autism. Fiona has names and evidence of this but Gardai are yet to act. TW: The blog is detailed and distressing.

If a high-ranking LAPD official can be believed, perhaps the Scientology-affiliated The Way To Happiness should take a page from its own teachings.

Two of the Glendale-based nonprofit organization's 21 guides to achieving happiness are "Be Worthy of Trust" and "Seek to Live the Truth," neither of which were followed apparently in the group's dealings with the LAPD and a city in Texas.

Officials with the group, which over the past two decades has distributed booklets of the same name to millions of school children across the country, all with the help of a variety of public officials and corporate sponsors, say they have worked with hundreds of organizations throughout Southern California and around the country in efforts to promote clean living as a virtue worthy of emulating.

But according to LAPD Cmdr. Mike Downing, the Church of Scientology forged his endorsement on The Way To Happiness Web site, prompting the LAPD to disavow any endorsement of Scientology and The Way To Happiness.

"We cannot endorse the Church of Scientology or any religion as the LAPD, and we very specifically said they could not use the LAPD name as it related to their book. They know they are clearly overstepping their bounds" in linking to the LAPD as an organization that works with The Way To Happiness Foundation (TWTH).

TWTH, Downing told the Pasadena Weekly, also apparently fraudulently posted on the Web a letter of commendation from the LAPD that was not signed by alleged writer Chief William Bratton, and also forged Downing's approval by rubber-stamping his signature to the image on the site, www.twth.org

But that isn't the only time TWTH, which has distributed booklets to more than 12 million American schoolchildren in 12,600 public schools since its inception in 1984, allegedly fabricated information to promote its product.

In the case of the LAPD, the booklets were distributed by the department, but only after TWTH representatives approached police officials repeatedly and only

Don't fall for it. It's a diversion. Why not ask Mr. IMTHECULT some pertinent questions;

1. Scientologists believe that ALL the words and works of LRH are sacred scripture and cannot be changed or interpreted. LRH wrote extensively about his homophobic opinions which means this is also "sacred scripture". Does Scientology hold to the homophobic beliefs of it's founder and Source and if not how does Scientology justify going against him?
2. If Scientology is all for religious freedom for all then why are those who leave not respected and allowed to chose not to practice Scientology?

3. If Scientology does not accept anything on faith then how do you believe in a Supreme Being? Scientology's big thing is that one's truth is what one experiences, if you don't experience God you can't believe in Him, then how can you get to the 8th Dynamic?
4. Where is Shelley?
5. Where is the proof of the "research" behind...well...ANY of the medical claims made by Scientology? (i.e. Narconon, the Purif, auditing...)
6. If Scientology tech can create a Clear with telekinetic powers then why is there NOT ONE person capable to accomplishing one single claim made?
7. If Scientology tech is real why did LRH die of heart disease?

Here is how #Scientology engages in human trafficking at its Sea Org facilities in the U.S. Pls share far & wide. #ScientologyTheAftermath

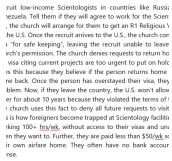

> Recruit low-income Scientologists in countries like Russia, Mexico & Venezuela. Tell them if they will agree to work for the Scientology in the U.S, the church will arrange for them to get an R1 Religious Visa & airfare to the U.S. Once the recruit arrives to the U.S., the church confiscates their visa "for safe keeping", leaving the recruit unable to leave without the church's permission. The church denies requests to return home to renew the visa citing current projects are too urgent to put on hold. The church does this because they believe if the person returns home they will not come back. Once the person has overstayed their visa, they have a new problem. Now, if they leave the country, the U.S. won't allow them to re-enter for about 10 years because they violated the terms of their 1st visa. The church uses this fact to deny all future requests to visit their family. This is how foreigners become trapped at Scientology facilities in the U.S., working 100+ hrs/wk, without access to their visas and unable to leave when they want to. Further, they are paid less than $50/wk so can't afford their own airfare home. They often have no bank account or driver's license.

The general of the Police (r) Carlos Mena Bravo gave the leader of Scientology, David Miscavige, a decoration. / Taken from: www.davidmiscavige.org

decide future of dry law during anti-corruption consultation

This Tuesday, in the debate of political control over the relationship of the Public Force with Scientology , carried out at ten o'clock in the morning in the Second Commission of the Senate, the Minister of Defense, Guillermo Botero, affirmed that " there is no intention to introduce the Armed Forces in any type of religious belief " , after having been questioned by the courses and talks dictated by members of said church to Colombian uniformed.

"We explain what happened. An agreement was made with a foundation, free of charge, there was not a penny on the part of the Armed Forces. Within this agreement, two booklets were published, one on human rights and others on personal improvement. In my opinion, the two books were innocuous, however, they did not circulate, "said Botero, the foundation referred to by Botero is called" Youth for Human Rights in Colombia. "He also said that " there is no compromise on security. " national ".

At the same time, he expressed his rejection of the award given by the general in retirement of the National Police , Carlos Ramiro Mena, to the spiritual leader of the religious movement, David Miscavige, a scandal that came to light on the first of August. According to Botero, Mena retired in February and had three months of grace, so at the time of the ceremony "the fact of wearing the uniform was not done in due form."

Despite these statements, Senator Iván Cepeda, of the Polo Democrático, criticized the presence of active members of Scientology within the Public Force. While he defended the right of every citizen to profess a religion and freedom of religion, he expressed that it was not clear what activity the members of this religious movement developed inside the institution.

Context: Police did not know that General (r) was going to award the leader of the Scientology movement

"It is a question that, beyond being simply a problem that has to do with constitutional principles, as Colombia is a secular state, reveals the problem of whether Scientology has become a matter of national security ," said the Senator of the opposition. " An organization is controlling members and segments of the Police. Until when is it going to be affecting the Public Force, which not only thanks leaders, but also Scientology claims mental illness is not real because there are no tests such as bloodwork, x-rays, etc that prove it exists. Yet here The CCHR UK is saying these children need to see Doctors for their conditions, not psychiatrists. How does this make sense?

CCHR United Kingdom

@cchruk

Hugely misleading headline. When children receive mental health 'treatment', it's a shambolic failure. True: CAMHS is not 'fit for purpose' but you can't put more lipstick on the pig. Children need real care from real doctors, not psychiatrists.

AUTISM FACTS

It's always important to remember that "autism" is a label invented by psychiatry for behaviours they they don't understand and certainly can't cure. The first step one can take is to reject the labeling and instead embrace the diversity and breath of human behaviour. There is no normal or abnormal human behaviour, there is simply different kinds of human behaviour. Embracing that is the first step. It is also important to identify substances that can have harmful effects on vulnerable children. In this case it was identified that MSG was harming a child and that without MSG the child felt better. So the psychiatric approach was to label a child with the "autism" label. Evidence-based fact checking revealed that what was really going on were MSG side effects. A good example for anyone struggling to understand the "autism" disinformation that is put out by the discredited and shrinking

L. Ron Hubbard, 40, founder of the Dianetics Research Foundation, was sued for divorce today by his pretty wife, Sarah Northrup Hubbard, 25, on sensational charges that he had another wife when he married her, and subjected her to "systematic torture" which threatened her life.

In the suit filed by Attorney Caryl Warner, Mrs. Hubbard contended that Hubbard was already married to Margaret Grubb Hubbard on Aug. 10, 1946, when he married her, representing himself as single. More than a year later he obtained a divorce from the first wife, she asserted.

The complaint also outlined a long series of alleged abuses, charging that Hubbard "dominated her, physically and mental-

In its second 1993 submissions to the IRS, the Church of Scientology stated that, among other projects, the archival Church of Spiritual Technology, "also has firm plans to construct many large indestructible obelisks in different parts of the world with the express purpose of preserving for all future generations of man, the precepts from the book The Way to Happiness by L. Ron Hubbard."

CST also has firm plans to construct many large indestructible obelisks in different parts of the world with the express purpose of preserving for all future generations of man, the precepts from the book The Way to Happiness, by L. Ron Hubbard. These precepts will be translated into pictograph form, etched onto large stainless steel sheets and then be attached to the obelisks. Thus these vital precepts will survive far into the future in such a form that even a primitive culture will be able to decipher them and derive the basis for a sane cultural beginning.

These future projects are vast in scope with construction of the first 4 additional vaults and the first twelve obelisks estimated to cost between 55 and 60 million dollars.

The world has yet to see even one of the planned twelve indestructible Scientology obelisks.

What happened? There were firm plans in place.

As of 2012 CST had a book value of $447,192,921 so it's not like there is no money for the obelisks.

AUTISM FACTS

It's always important to remember that "autism" is a label invented by psychiatry for behaviours they they don't understand and certainly can't cure. The first step one can take is to reject the labeling and instead embrace the diversity and breath of human behaviour. There is no normal or abnormal human behaviour, there is simply different kinds of human behaviour. Embracing that is the first step. It is also important to identify substances that can have harmful effects on vulnerable children. In this case it was identified that MSG was harming a child and that without MSG the child felt better. So the psychiatric approach was to label a child with the "autism" label. Evidence-based fact checking revealed that what was really going on were MSG side effects. A good example for anyone struggling to understand the "autism" disinformation that is put out by the discredited and shrinking

All Scientologists Must Show Their IAS Card At Events!
scientologymoneyproject.com/2018/09/12/all...

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF SCIENTOLOGISTS

[redacted]

29 August 2018

Dear [redacted]

The Church of Scientology International has informed the IAS that members will be asked to present their cards at events. This is for the purpose of identification and to receive membership benefits offered by Churches of Scientology.

As you know, the IAS is the official membership of the Church of Scientology International and churches offer members benefits such as lower requested donations for auditing and training and discounts on books and materials.[1]

With the IAS 34th Anniversary Event coming up in October, we wanted to confirm that you have your IAS membership card and that it is in good condition. If you don't have your card, or need a replacement, please let us know by filling out the form below or completing an online request at: IASmembership.org/cardrequest.

Brian, 100% of the Las Vegas Police Department arrested your fellow #Scientology member when she was caught plotting to kill a cop. Does this mean Scientology is more dangerous and violent than drugs?

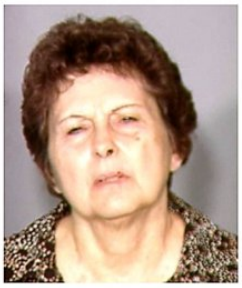

« TONIGHT: LA Sheriff Lee Baca to Grace Scientology Gala, Days after "Celebrity Center" Employee Arrested for Planning to Kill a Cop

Report From the Fringe: Underground Bunker Night at The TomKat Project »

PR Director of Scientology's Las Vegas Celebrity Center Arrested in Plot to Assassinate a Cop

NOW POSTED BELOW: We have the 20-page police report detailing what Brutsche and Newman told police during the undercover investigation of their plan to kidnap and kill a police officer. AND FINALLY — A STATEMENT FROM SCIENTOLOGY

ALSO: Devon Newman was once a tenant living in the home of Karen de la Carriere, former wife of the president of the Church of Scientology! See our update, below.

Devon Campbell Newman, 67, became the public relations director of Scientology's "Celebrity Center" in Las Vegas, Nevada early in 2010 and has remained in that position to the present day — that's according to her own LinkedIn profile as well as numerous online records of her activities as a Scientologist.

This week, she became known for something else. As a result of a police investigation that began in April, on Tuesday Newman and a six-time felon and registered sex offender named David Allen Brutsche, 42, were arrested for planning what police are calling a bizarre plot to kidnap and kill a random local police officer in a macabre publicity stunt to promote their "sovereign citizen" views.

In preparation for the impact expected from Hurricane Florence Northampton County will be opening 3 shelters within the county. The Wellness Center 9536 NC 305 Highway in Jackson, Northampton County High School 152 Hurricane Drive in Gaston, and Conway Middle School 400 East Main Street in Conway. These shelters are scheduled to open at 6:00 pm on Wednesday September 12th.

Being prepared and taking some personal items with you makes the stay a little more comfortable. Prepare a go-bag to carry with you. Items to bring with you are:

- Food – The shelter may provide food. If you want comfort food or you are on a special diet, you should bring your own food.

- Clothing and Bedding – You should have two changes of clothing and all weather shoes. Not always is there bedding provided. A sleeping bag, blanket and pillow would make it more comfortable.

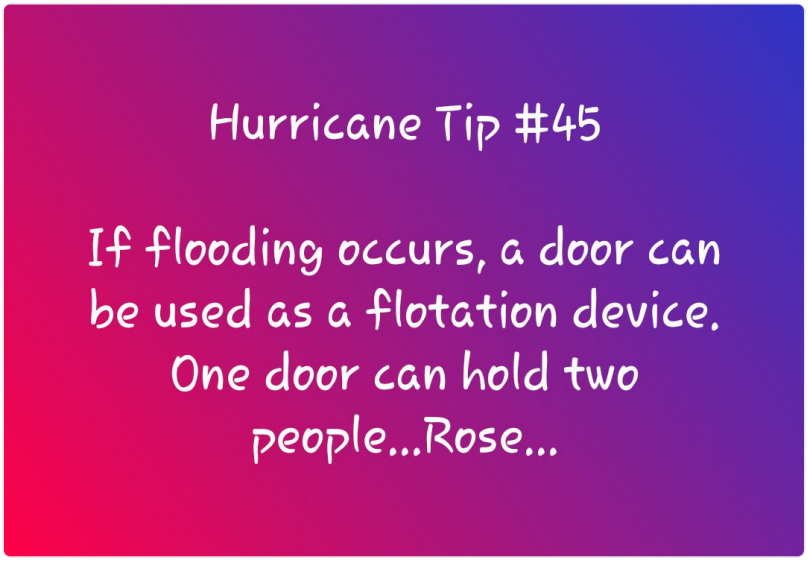

- Personal Items – Bring toiletries items with you. Don't forget your prescription medicines.

Re: Karen De La Carriere

Dear Gary,

Attached is the email I sent you two years ago, entitled "Representation of Karen De La Carriere". In it, I politely but clearly informed you that I represent Ms. De La Carriere. I stated, "If you have any need to communicate with Ms. De La Carriere henceforth, I would appreciate it if you would contact me directly." Nevertheless, you have seen fit to bypass her attorney and threaten her directly.

Since you seem fond of demanding answers to questions, perhaps you will answer a single question from me -- is a California lawyer permitted to communicate directly with an adverse party he knows to be represented by counsel?

Despite your usual baseless accusations and threats against Ms. De La Carriere, I was gratified by one aspect of your latest correspondence -- you acknowledge that she is a lady! This is quite an improvement over Scientology's laughable campaign to portray Ms. De La Carriere as a prostitute in her youth.

Apparently, the thugs in Scientology's dreaded Office of Special Affairs are screened to guard against sense of irony. Otherwise, they would realize the incongruity of claiming that Heber Jentzsch, the President of the Church of Scientology, married a woman of such allegedly loose morals, and then fathered a son with her. Certainly, Scientology's founder, L. Ron Hubbard, would not have personally invited Ms. De La Carriere to join its clergy if she was such a depraved person. It is amazing that Ms. De La Carriere achieved the highest levels of Scientology achievement and worked in its international headquarters despite her alleged shortcomings. The Office of Special Affairs has the uncanny ability to "discover" spectacular failings in the most prominent former Scientologists.

You, yourself, are quite loose with accusations. Your accusation du jour is that Ms. De La Carriere is stealing, conspiring with thieves, and violating Scientology's copyrights. You provide no evidence to support these serious claims, because you have no such proof. Ms. De La Carriere has stolen nothing, has conspired with no thieves, and has violated no copyrights. The only thing she is guilty of is exercising her First Amendment right to comment on matters of public interest, including fair use of snippets of video widely available in the marketplace of ideas.

Ms. De La Carriere is doing nothing wrong, and she will continue to shine a light on the abuses committed by Scientology's absolute ruler, Capt. Miscavige. If you do not believe that these are matters of public interest, you may want to tune into HBO later this month.

As always, please direct any further threats, falsehoods, and other communications to me rather than directly to Ms. De La Carriere.

Very truly yours,

Jeffrey & Harris,
PC

From Operation Clambake.

By Barbara Graham, September 18 2001

In the past week following the World Trade Center tragedy, we have heard amazing stories of heroism and acts of selfless courage and generousity. Sadly, it has become necessary to warn people of the small number of hucksters, jackals, and scam artists attempting to profit from this terrible event. Recently, one such scam came to light, perpetrated by the Church of Scientology.

By presenting itself as "National Mental Health Assistance," they managed to deceive Fox News into running their number across the screen on their broadcasts for five hours. People calling for help wound up speaking to representatives for Scientology, a group well-known for opposing the real mental health industry.

Intercepted emails from Scientologists in New York City are revealing, it shows that this group is intentionally using deceit to gain access to the vulnerable people still suffering from shock and grief. Moreover, it has deliberately interfered with legitimate mental health practitioners sent there to assist. Below are a few excerpts from these emails, sent out to Scientologists to promote this parasitic behavior by "Lt." Simon Hare, CO, I HELP Canada (in NY). (Note: the "Lieutenant" designates a rank in the Sea Org, not to be confused with actual military rank)

Intercepted Scientology email:

Dear All,

For the last two days I have been in New York Org running, with several other Sea Org members, the deployment of Volunteer Ministers into the disaster zone.

The Sea Org is Scientology's pretend Navy, and consists of the most dedicated members. These people sign a billion year contract when joining up. Volunteer Ministers have undergone an hour's training in Scientology style disaster training, mostly a technique known as a "touch assist," which is supposed to make one feel better. This was dreamed up by founder L. Ron Hubbard, a science fiction writer and college dropout, a man who's "Doctorate" degree was purchased from a diploma mill.

After describing the scene, the Scientologist reporting goes on to say:

Intercepted Scientology email:

Additionally we are trying to move in and knock the psychs out of counseling to the grieving families and that could take another 100 plus people right now. Due to some brilliant maneuvering by some simply genius Sea Org Members we tied up the majority of the psychs who were attempting to get to families yesterday in QAA, bullbait and wrangling. They have a hard time completing cycles of action and are pretty easy to disperse. But today they are out in full force and circling like vultures over these people and all of our resources are tied up in the support efforts in the disaster zone at present.

Scientology's greatest perceived enemy on Earth is "the psychs." This term refers to formally trained mental health professionals, from counsellors to psychiatrists. Here they are blatantly admitting to interfering with rescue assistance efforts from that field. Here we see that distributing food and water is not their main goal in being on-scene, rather, it is access to the victims they are after. By keeping Awesome song!!

I hear the drums echoing tonight
But she hears only whispers of some quiet conversation
She's coming in, 12: 30 flight
The moonlit wings reflect the stars that guide me towards salvation
I stopped an old man along the way
Hoping to find some long forgotten words or ancient melodies
He turned to me as if to say, "Hurry boy, it's waiting there for you"

It's gonna take a lot to take me away from you
There's nothing that a hundred men or more could ever do
I bless the rains down in Africa
Gonna take some time to do the things we never had

The wild dogs cry out in the night
As they grow restless, longing for some solitary company
I know that I must do what's right
As sure as Kilimanjaro rises like Olympus above the Serengeti
I seek to cure what's deep inside, frightened of this thing that I've become

It's gonna take a lot to drag me away from you
There's nothing that a hundred men or more could ever do
I bless the rains down in Africa
Gonna take some time to do the things we never had

Hurry boy, she's waiting there for you

And the sum of it is that the pervert is always a very ill person in one way or another, whether he is conscious of it or not. He is very far from culpable for his condition, but he is also so far from normal and so extremely dangerous to society that the tolerance of perversion is as thoroughly bad for society as punishment for it. Lacking proper means prior to this time, society has been caught between tolerance and punishment, and the problem of perversion has, of course, not been resolved. A bit off the subject here, but it can be remarked about perversion that the best previous explanation for it was something about girls becoming envious of Papa's penis or boys becoming upset about that terrible thing, the vulva, which Mama was incautious enough to show one day. It takes a great deal more than this utter tripe to make a pervert. It is, rather, something on the order of kicking a baby's head in, running over him with a steamroller, cutting him in half with a rusty knife, boiling him in Lysol and all the while with crazy people screaming the most horrifying and unprintable things at him. The human being is a very tough character. He is so confoundedly tough that he has whipped the whole animal kingdom and he can shake the stars. And when it comes to throwing his Second Dynamic out of balance, what that takes is straight out of Dante and Sax Rohmer combined. Hence the pervert, containing hundreds and hundreds of vicious engrams, has had little choice between being dead and being a pervert. But with an effective science to handle the problem, a society which would continue to endure perversion and all its sad 27 years ago, 1600 black women took out a full page ad in the NYT to show support for Anita Hill. I was 20 years old. I put $25 toward the price of the ad and signed my name.

African American Women In Defense of Ourselves

As women of African descent, we are deeply troubled by the recent nomination, confirmation and seating of Clarence Thomas as an Associate Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court. We know that the presence of Clarence Thomas on the Court will be continually used to divert attention from historic struggles for social justice through suggestions that the presence of a Black man on the Supreme Court constitutes an assurance that the rights of African Americans will be protected. Clarence Thomas' public record is ample evidence this will not be true. Further, the consolidation of a conservative majority on the Supreme Court seriously endangers the rights of all women, poor and working class people and the elderly. The seating of Clarence Thomas is an affront not only to African American women and men, but to all people concerned with social justice.

We are particularly outraged by the racist and sexist treatment of Professor Anita Hill, an African American woman who was maligned and castigated for daring to speak publicly of her own experience of sexual abuse. The malicious defamation of Professor Hill insulted all women of African descent and sent a dangerous message to any woman who might contemplate a sexual harassment complaint.

We speak here because we recognize that the media are now portraying the Black community as prepared to tolerate both the dismantling of affirmative action and the evil of sexual harassment in order to have any Black man on the Supreme Court. We want to make clear that the media have ignored or distorted many African American voices. We will not be silenced.

Many have erroneously portrayed the allegations against Clarence Thomas as an issue of either gender or race. As women of African descent, we understand sexual harassment as both. We further understand that Clarence Thomas outrageously manipulated the legacy of lynching in order to shelter himself from Anita Hill's allegations. To deflect attention away from the reality of sexual abuse in African American women's lives, he trivialized and misrepresented this painful part of African American people's history. This country, which has a long legacy of racism and sexism, has never taken the sexual abuse of Black women seriously. Throughout U.S. history Black women have been sexually stereotyped as immoral, insatiable, perverse, the initiators in all sexual contacts–abusive or otherwise. The common assumption in legal proceedings as well as in the larger society has been that Black women cannot be raped or otherwise sexually abused. As Anita Hill's experience demonstrates, Black women who speak of these matters are not likely to be believed.

In 1991, we cannot tolerate this type of dismissal of any one Black woman's experience or this attack upon our collective character without protest, outrage, and resistance.

As women of African descent, we express our vehement opposition to the policies represented by the placement of Clarence Thomas on the Supreme Court. The Bush administration, having obstructed the passage of civil rights legislation, impeded the extension of unemployment compensation, cut student aid and dismantled social welfare programs, has continually demonstrated that it is not operating in our best interests. Nor is this appointee. We pledge ourselves to continue to speak out in defense of one another, in defense of the African American community and against those who are hostile to social justice no matter what color they are. No one will speak for us but ourselves.

Yesterday, after watching Dr. Ford give testimony about her sexual assault, @candacefaber bravely decided to name her rapist, minority floor leader of the WA state senate, @senatorfain medium.com/@candacefaber/...

In Response to All of Today's Media Inquiries

Today I watched as Dr. Christine Blasey Ford and Supreme Court Nominee Brett Kavanaugh testified before the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Like many survivors, I was inspired by Dr. Ford's courage. During her testimony, I Tweeted:

> Candace Faber @candacefaber
> Replying to @candacefaber
> Blasey Ford deserves to live in a country where the highest authority over the law of the land does not belong, even partially, to her assailant.
>
> She is allowed to want justice. She is allowed to be powerful. She is allowed to be certain. I wish I could tell her so.
> 9:40 AM - Sep 27, 2018
> 14 See Candace Faber's other Tweets

Then I realized the same words apply to every woman in this country. Including me.

Including me.

That is why I chose to name my rapist on Twitter: Joe Fain. He currently serves as a Senator in the Washington State Legislature. I did this without professional legal counsel. It was a decision I made in the moment.

However, it feels like a decision I have been building up to for a long time. Over the past several years, I have spoken with many people and written publicly about the details of my sexual assault.

Until recently, I withheld my rapist's name, even in private conversations. I hoped that I could help change the culture of sexual assault without needing to say his name. I no longer believe that to be the case. We cannot heal without accountability.

Like Dr. Ford, I can no longer remain silent knowing that the man who raped me is in a position to influence the laws that govern my state and impact every woman who lives here. I do not believe that survivors have a civic duty to speak out. I believe that we have a civic duty to believe survivors.

Throughout our history, women who have spoken up about sexual assault have been threatened, defamed, gaslighted, had their character and sanity

NEW: Dr. Ford's lawyers have just released her polygraph report.

POLYGRAPH EXAMINATION REPORT

Date of Report
08/10/2018

Date of Examination
08/07/2018

Location of Examination
Hilton Hotel, 1739 West Nursery Road, Linthicum Heights, MD 21090

Examinee's Name
Christine Blasey

Synopsis
On August 7, 2018, Christine Blasey reported to the Hilton Hotel, 1739 West Nursery Road, Linthicum Heights, MD 21090, for the purpose of undergoing a polygraph examination. The examination was to address whether Blasey was physically assaulted by Brett Kavanaugh while attending a small party in Montgomery County, MD. This assault occurred in the 1980's when Blasey was a high school student at the Holton-Arms School. Accompanying Blasey was Attorney Lisa Banks of the firm Katz, Marshall & Banks. After introductions were made, this examiner left the room so Blasey and Attorney Banks could discuss this matter. During this discussion, Blasey provided a written statement to Banks detailing the events that occurred on the evening of the assault. The statement was provided to this examiner when he returned. Blasey stated that the statement was true and correct and signed it in the presence of this examiner and Banks attesting to its accuracy. A copy of this statement is attached to this report. After a brief discussion, Banks departed.

Blasey was then interviewed in an effort to formulate the relevant questions. During this interview, Blasey described the events that occurred on the night of the assault. She stated she attended a small party at a house where the parents were not home. Those attending the party were drinking beer. Blasey stated that Kavanaugh and his friend, Mark, became extremely intoxicated. Blasey stated that she had met Kavanaugh before at previous parties and she briefly dated one of his friends. She stated that Kavanaugh attended Georgetown Preparatory School and she previously attended parties hosted by students of this school. Blasey remembers another male Whoa. Here is a statement from James Roche who was Brett Kavanaugh's freshman roommate. To sum it up, he says he believes Debbie Ramirez, and says Kavanaugh and his social circle were capable of what Debbie described.

Statement From James Roche was Brett Kavanaugh's roommate at Yale University in the Fall of 1983. We shared a twowithesses unit in the basement of Lawrence Hall on the Old Campus. Despite our living conditions, Brett and I did not socialize much in the first few days of freshman year. We talked a fellow freshmen, but we never developed a social circle in those first few days. I remember Brett. It is from this experience that I concluded that although Brett was outwardly reserved, h was a notably heavy drinker, even by the standards of the time, and that he became aggressive o ed belligerent when he was very drunk. I did not observe the specific incident in question, but it remember Brett frequently drinking excessively and becoming inadvertently drunk.

became close friends with Debbie Ramirez shortly after we both arrived at Yale. She stood ou ong freshmen women at Yale. She was very sociable, fun, and had a wide circle of friends.
learned that Debbie was very tearful about flying in. She felt that everyone at Yale was rich ish, very smart and very sophisticated and that as a Puerto Rican woman from a less privileged ackground she was an outsider. Her response was to try hard to make friends and get along.

based on my time with Debbie, I believe her to be unusually honest and straightforward and I never imagine her making this up.

based on my time with Brett, I believe that he and his social circle were capable of the actions bed Debbie described.

do not consider myself to be a political person and I have no political agenda. I have shared th information with a small number of reporters who reached out to me directly because Debbie h right to be heard and I believe her.

have been asked for more detail and additional stories, but this is all that I am comfortable haring. If I could contribute more first-hand information, I would, but I will not be guessing an ment interviews or answering any more questions at this time.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE Thursday, August 30, 2018

Four Individuals Charged In Widespread Scheme To Defraud Medicare And Other Heatlh Insurance Providers Through Fraudulent Medical Corporations And False Billing Resulting In Tens Of Millions Of Dollars In Losses

Geoffrey S. Berman, the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, William F. Sweeney, Jr., the Assistant Director-in-Charge of the New York Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI"), Scott J. Lampert, Special Agent in Charge of the New York Office of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Inspector General ("HHS-OIG"), and Thomas P. DiNapoli, the New York State Comptroller, announced the unsealing today of an indictment charging JAMES SPINA, JEFFREY SPINA, ANDREA GROSSMAN, and KIMBERLY SPINA with participating in a widespread health care fraud scheme through their fraudulent operation of Dolson Avenue Medical ("DAM" or the "Practice"), a multi-disciplinary medical clinic located in Middletown, New York. The defendants were all arrested today, and presented in federal district court in White Plains. This case has been assigned to U.S. District Court Judge Kenneth M. Karas.

Berman also today announced the guilty plea of CHARLES BAGLEY, a licensed medical doctor formerly affiliated with DAM and other businesses, to conspiracy to commit health care fraud, charged in a separate Information unsealed today.

Let me brighten your day. After my first baseball game with my dad when I was a young boy, we came home and he wrote me this note. I came across it the other day and I just can't wait to do this for my son or daughter.

MAY 6, 1994

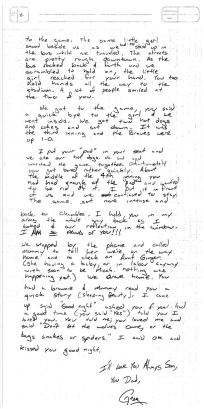

DEAR TYLER,

It's 10:55 pm and your mother is tucking you in bed. I wanted to sit down and write you a letter to remind you about your 1st baseball game.

Tonight, you & I went to see the Braves play the Montreal Expos. The game started at 7:40 pm. I raced home @ 5:00pm and cleaned out the Jeep for our trip. About 6pm as I was getting ready to get you and Trevor at Primrose, you mom drove up with the two of you. We quickly changed into shorts and left for the game.

Because of the new construction downtown (the new Olympic Stadium) we took MARTA downtown. We first stopped off at Hancock Fabric store in Chamblee because I had this bright idea that you would sit too low in the stadium seat and couldn't see the game. I bought three foam cushions and had them stapled into a plastic bag and we headed to the chamblee MARTA station with our foam cushions & two red foam tomahawks.

We caught the train at Chamblee and headed for the game. A little and I

If they do and her husband looks like he does, the private dix will drop dimes with child services and prove it in court legally along with pictures of him doing the drugs and if she does too, then her too, photos and videos of both of these people doing drugs and a history of doing drugs long term, not one video or one photo.

MAY 6, 1994

DEAR TYLER,

It's 10:55 pm and your mother is tucking you in bed. I wanted to sit down and write you a letter to remind you about your 1st baseball game.

Tonight, you & I went to see the Braves play the Montreal Expos. The game started at 7:40 pm. I raced home @ 5:00pm and cleaned out the Jeep for our trip. About 6 pm as I was getting ready to get you and Trever at Primrose, your mom drove up with the two of you. We quickly changed into shorts and left for the game.

Because of the new construction downtown (the new Olympic Stadium) we took MARTA downtown. We first stopped off at Hancock Fabric Store in Chamblee because I had this bright idea that you would sit too low in the stadium seat and couldn't see the game. I bought three foam cushions and had them stapled into a plastic bag and we headed to the chamblee MARTA station with our foam cushions & two red foam tomahawks.

We caught the train at Chamblee and Donna Whitman I could be guessing but threatening to kill someone is probably against Facebook's TOS. Supplying a link to the direct threat isn't a way to get around that. PLEASE get help. I know Scientologists don't believe in psychiatry but some kind of counseling is definitely needed.

Anne Renner Krzanowski Kathy Gold you've been told on Twitter where you've been nonstop threatening, stalking and slandering myself and my friends to stop, repeatedly. Law enforcement is involved now because you refuse to stop issuing death threats against innocent people and young children. So now you've been told on Facebook as well. If you won't stop on your own then we will use every legal means necessary.

another lie Anne, everybody else can see the evidence of your felonies, unless of course, your name isn't Anne Renner Krzanowsk and you're a terrorist trying to exploit twitter's platform. You committed felonies on that platform on me, that's against the laws of this land, now what American would do that on anybody? They wouldn't, they'd have to much to lose including going to Federal Prison. So that tells me, you're not an American but a terrorist, even homegrown. You keep threatening me with law enforcement and lawsuits for no reason, go ahead, sue me, I call your bluff. https://youtu.be/vHywdoaa0E8

Anne Renner Krzanowski I know you're baiting me, same as you do on Twitter. It doesn't work there (and now both of your accounts are suspended for making death threats) so you'll try it here. Not gonna work here either. Out of curiosity, why don't you ever respond to Melissa Paris? Were you instructed not to?

know who to tell the LAPD and the Baltimore PD who to look for. You're being exposed with each passing day. Will Scientology protect you I wonder?

Like · Reply · 9m

The Adventures Of Kathy Gold I'm not baiting you, I simply asked questions, it's called a conversation. My accounts aren't suspended on twitter, they're locked up due to your false reports, they will be unlocked when I get into Federal Court Anne if that's your real name. Who is Melissa Paris? I don't know her. Who wold instruct me not to? Please explain with specifics.

Melissa Paris The Adventures Of Kathy Gold I've met her. She's my best friend. I know you're lying. How come you don't want me to post the picture of you on here. I posted it on twitter for everyone to see. You continue to lie and make criminal threats. How come you won't talk to me? You were told not to engage with me huh? Was it by your people at CCHR?

Like · Reply · 7m

The Adventures Of Kathy Gold I never threaten anybody, I gave warning to you and the rest of Chrissie Carnell Bixler, you all attacked me, made false reports in attempt to have me murdered, the proof, evidence is listed at FedCourt.info and forwarded to the FBI, DOJ, Inspector General LAPD, the District Attorney LA and the two other LAPD twitter accounts that you all as a group false reported too.

Like · Reply · 7m

The Adventures Of Kathy Gold Now Anne if that's your real name, you are threatening me, will my religion protect me, along with more harrassment.

Anne Renner Krzanowski You know who Melissa Paris is. You tweeted her one time and haven't since. And my real name is Anne Kathryn Renner Krzanowski. Feel free to look me up. Do a Google search on me, if you haven't already. I've done some interesting interviews about my time in Scientology as a public member. Maybe something I said will help wake you up to how manipulative your cult is and you'll be ready to leave. We can help you, if you want to be freed of their mind controlling tactics.

The Adventures Of Kathy Gold Anne and Melissa you will have to slow down, I have numerous PTSDs including the one you all gave me when you committed felonies on the twitter platform on me, hate crimes are a felony Krzanowski I don't know Melissa Paris is, I've never met her nor do I know who or whom is behind her accounts, for all I know, I'm conversing with a terrorist.

Anne Renner Krzanowski Kathy. I'm sorry you're so paranoid. I wish you could get help but you don't seem to want to. I feel sorry for you. Scientology really messed you up. But for the record. At no time, ever, have I or Chrissie or anyone else attempted to have you murdered. Good Lord. Do you need to be reminded of your own threats against us? If you'd be brave enough to allow pictures to be shared on this page I would gladly show you what you've said about us. How you can't wait to kill us so you can make money off of our dead bodies. How we'll just disappear from Twitter and no one will know. So you've got our murders pretty well planned out don't you?

Like · Reply · 2m

Melissa Paris The Adventures Of Kathy Gold lol, dudeeee staaap with your bullshit! I wonder if this is all an act. Now I know you know who I am. I bet you were told to stay clear of me weren't you? You do nothing but make criminal threats.

Anne Renner Krzanowski Ok Kathy. I'll give you a minute to catch up on all we've said and respond. That's only fair. But again, just know everything you say is being shared with law enforcement so choose your words very carefully.

Anne Renner Krzanowski Kathy. I'm sorry you're so paranoid. I wish you could get help but you don't seem to want to. I feel sorry for you. Scientology really messed you up. But for the record. At no time, ever, have I or Chrissie or anyone else attempted to have you murdered. Good Lord. Do you need to be reminded of your own threats against us? If you'd be brave enough to allow pictures to be shared on this page I would gladly show you what you've said about us. How you can't wait to kill us so you can make money off of our dead bodies. How we'll just disappear from Twitter and no one will know. So you've got our murders pretty well planned out don't you?

Anne Renner Krzanowski You know who Melissa Paris is. You tweeted her one time and haven't since. And my real name is Anne Kathryn Renner Krzanowski. Feel free to look me up. Do a Google search on me, if you haven't already. I've done some interesting interviews about my time in Scientology as a public member. Maybe something I said will help wake you up to how manipulative your cult is and you'll be ready to leave. We can help you, if you want to be freed of their mind controlling tactics.

Anne Renner Krzanowski Kathy. I'm sorry you're so paranoid. I wish you could get help but you don't seem to want to. I feel sorry for you. Scientology really messed you up. But for the record. At no time, ever, have I or Chrissie or anyone else attempted to have you murdered. Good Lord. Do you need to be reminded of your own threats against us? If you'd be brave enough to allow pictures to be shared on this page I would gladly show you what you've said about us. How you can't wait to kill us so you can make money off of our dead bodies. How we'll just disappear from Twitter and no one will know. So you've got our murders pretty well planned out don't you?

Anne Renner Krzanowski The Adventures Of Kathy Gold I live in Baltimore. But you already know that. Again, feel free to look me up and fact check everything I've said. I'm not hiding from you or anyone.

24m

Melissa Paris The Adventures Of Kathy Gold how come you don't want to communicate with me?

Anne Renner Krzanowski What's your email address, Kathy? Or should I message you on here?

23m

The Adventures Of Kathy Gold Actually Anne, I don't know where you live, but thanks for telling me, I'll include the Baltimore PD in my Federal Lawsuit since you made false reports unless of course the FBI has already gotten to them and informed them

23m

Melissa Paris Anne Renner Krzanowski why does she keep talking about a federal lawsuit when law enforcement is already looking into her.

22m

The Adventures Of Kathy Gold Anne, you can contact me from my contact us form listed at KathyGold.com

22m

Melissa Paris The Adventures Of Kathy Gold where have we threatened your life? I can show you plenty of blogs where you threaten Chrissie and Anne.

21m

Anne Renner Krzanowski The Adventures Of Kathy Gold the Baltimore PD were made aware of your death threats that include me. They are in communication with the LAPD regarding you. Want to include the police where Melissa lives too? Or did CCHR instruct you to leave her alone and only target Chrissie and now me?

21m

Melissa Paris The Adventures Of Kathy Gold how come you won't talk to me?

21m

The Adventures Of Kathy Gold Anne if law enforcement is looking for me, they know where to find me but you already know that and they haven't come looking, maybe they're looking for you

21m

The Adventures Of Kathy Gold oooooops I meant Melissa Paris

21m

Melissa Paris Anne Renner Krzanowski she keeps saying Anne, and not me. 🤦‍♀️

21m

Anne Renner Krzanowski Melissa Paris yep. Very telling.

20m

Melissa Paris The Adventures Of Kathy Gold no you didn't lol. You were told not to engage with me.

20m

Melissa Paris Anne Renner Krzanowski isn't it though 🤔

Anne Renner Krzanowski Kathy I appreciate you [illegible] not engag[illegible] and d[illegible] to m[illegible] structions ar[illegible] much for that.

19m

Melissa Paris Anne Renner Krzanowski right! Isn't that interesting

18m

The Adventures Of Kathy Gold to answer your question melissa, who told me not to engage with you? you're the one saying that.

18m

The Adventures Of Kathy Gold you both approached me not the other way around

17m

Anne Renner Krzanowski The Adventures Of Kathy Gold are you going to enable pictures to be shared in our posts here with you? Seems only fair unless there's something you're worried about.

17m

Melissa Paris The Adventures Of Kathy Gold well darlin, you wouldn't ever tweet me back and now you barely talk to me. Message me. Let's have a chat. I can tell you where to get help.

17m

Melissa Paris The Adventures Of Kathy Gold ohhh yes. We can show you the pic the law enforcement sent that!

17m

Anne Renner Krzanowski Melissa Paris This is interesting. I've had my vpn running on my phone all night. Since Kathy started engaging with me it got shut off. That has never happened before. Never. 🤔

15m

Melissa Paris Anne Renner Krzanowski funny how that works lol

13m

The Adventures Of Kathy Gold You know Anne and Melissa if that's your real names, if it turns out, both of you are really terrorists, I'm gonna have so much funny LMAO along with the #CIA and #HomelandSecurity of course all approved by the Fed Gov. https://youtu.be/2sky1tt8vLA

Melissa Paris The Adventures Of Kathy Gold how would we be terrorists? When you approached us and have been writing numerous blogs threatening my friends Chrissie, and Anne. I'm shaking in my boots here about your federal case, which is a load of crap. Probably shouldn't talk criminal justice with someone's whose studied it

Anne Renner Krzanowski I just laughed so hard I almost spit out my water. Kathy Gold, if that's your real name, (I think I'm gonna say that every time too because it amuses me) the only person who is engaging in attempting to terrorize people is you. Documented, in your own words.

Help for Anne

$3,375 of $5,000 goal

Raised by 51 people in 8 days

About three years ago, I fell deathly ill. I was in and out of the hospital and had emergency surgery. I was told if I hadn't gone to the hospital when I did, I would have died within a few days. After that ordeal, I was still too sick and weak to return to work when my employer wanted me back and ultimately, I lost my job. Since then my health has been agonizingly slow to return. I've been in the hospital a few more times, and was finally diagnosed with autoimmune pancreatitis with liver complications. I'm slowly learning how to live with it, but when I have a flare up, the pain is unbearable and at times I require hospitalization.

I receive a small disability payment monthly, which has been enough to pay the rent but that's about it. As my money has run dry and I haven't been well enough to return to work full time, I'm now getting by with whatever loose change I find around my apartment to buy a loaf of bread that I make last for two weeks. I'm at the point where there's just nothing left.

Asking for help has always been the most difficult thing for me to do. I pride myself on being the one who takes care of everyone else. I took care of both of my parents when they were dying, my mother-in-law when she had Alzheimer's disease, my severely depressed and at times suicidal (now ex) husband, and I've basically been a single mother to my autistic brother. The one person I've never really taken care of is me. I've survived child abuse, and a toxic relationship with a narcissistic sociopath. I even survived Scientology. But I can't afford food or my prescriptions for much longer. It's hard to [illegible] scared every day.

So here I am, asking the world for help to get me through a while longer so I can work on getting stronger and start a new job. This money will put some healthy food in my body, keep the lights on, and pay for my prescriptions.

I am sorry to burden any of you with this, but so thankful for any and all help.

I was attacked on the Twitter Platform by religious haters, this is my blog https://kathygold.weebly.com/ and I believe they will try next to attack my blog and bring it down.

Both of my twitter accounts, one for this blog and one for my religion were false reported, they took my tweets out of context and made false reports.

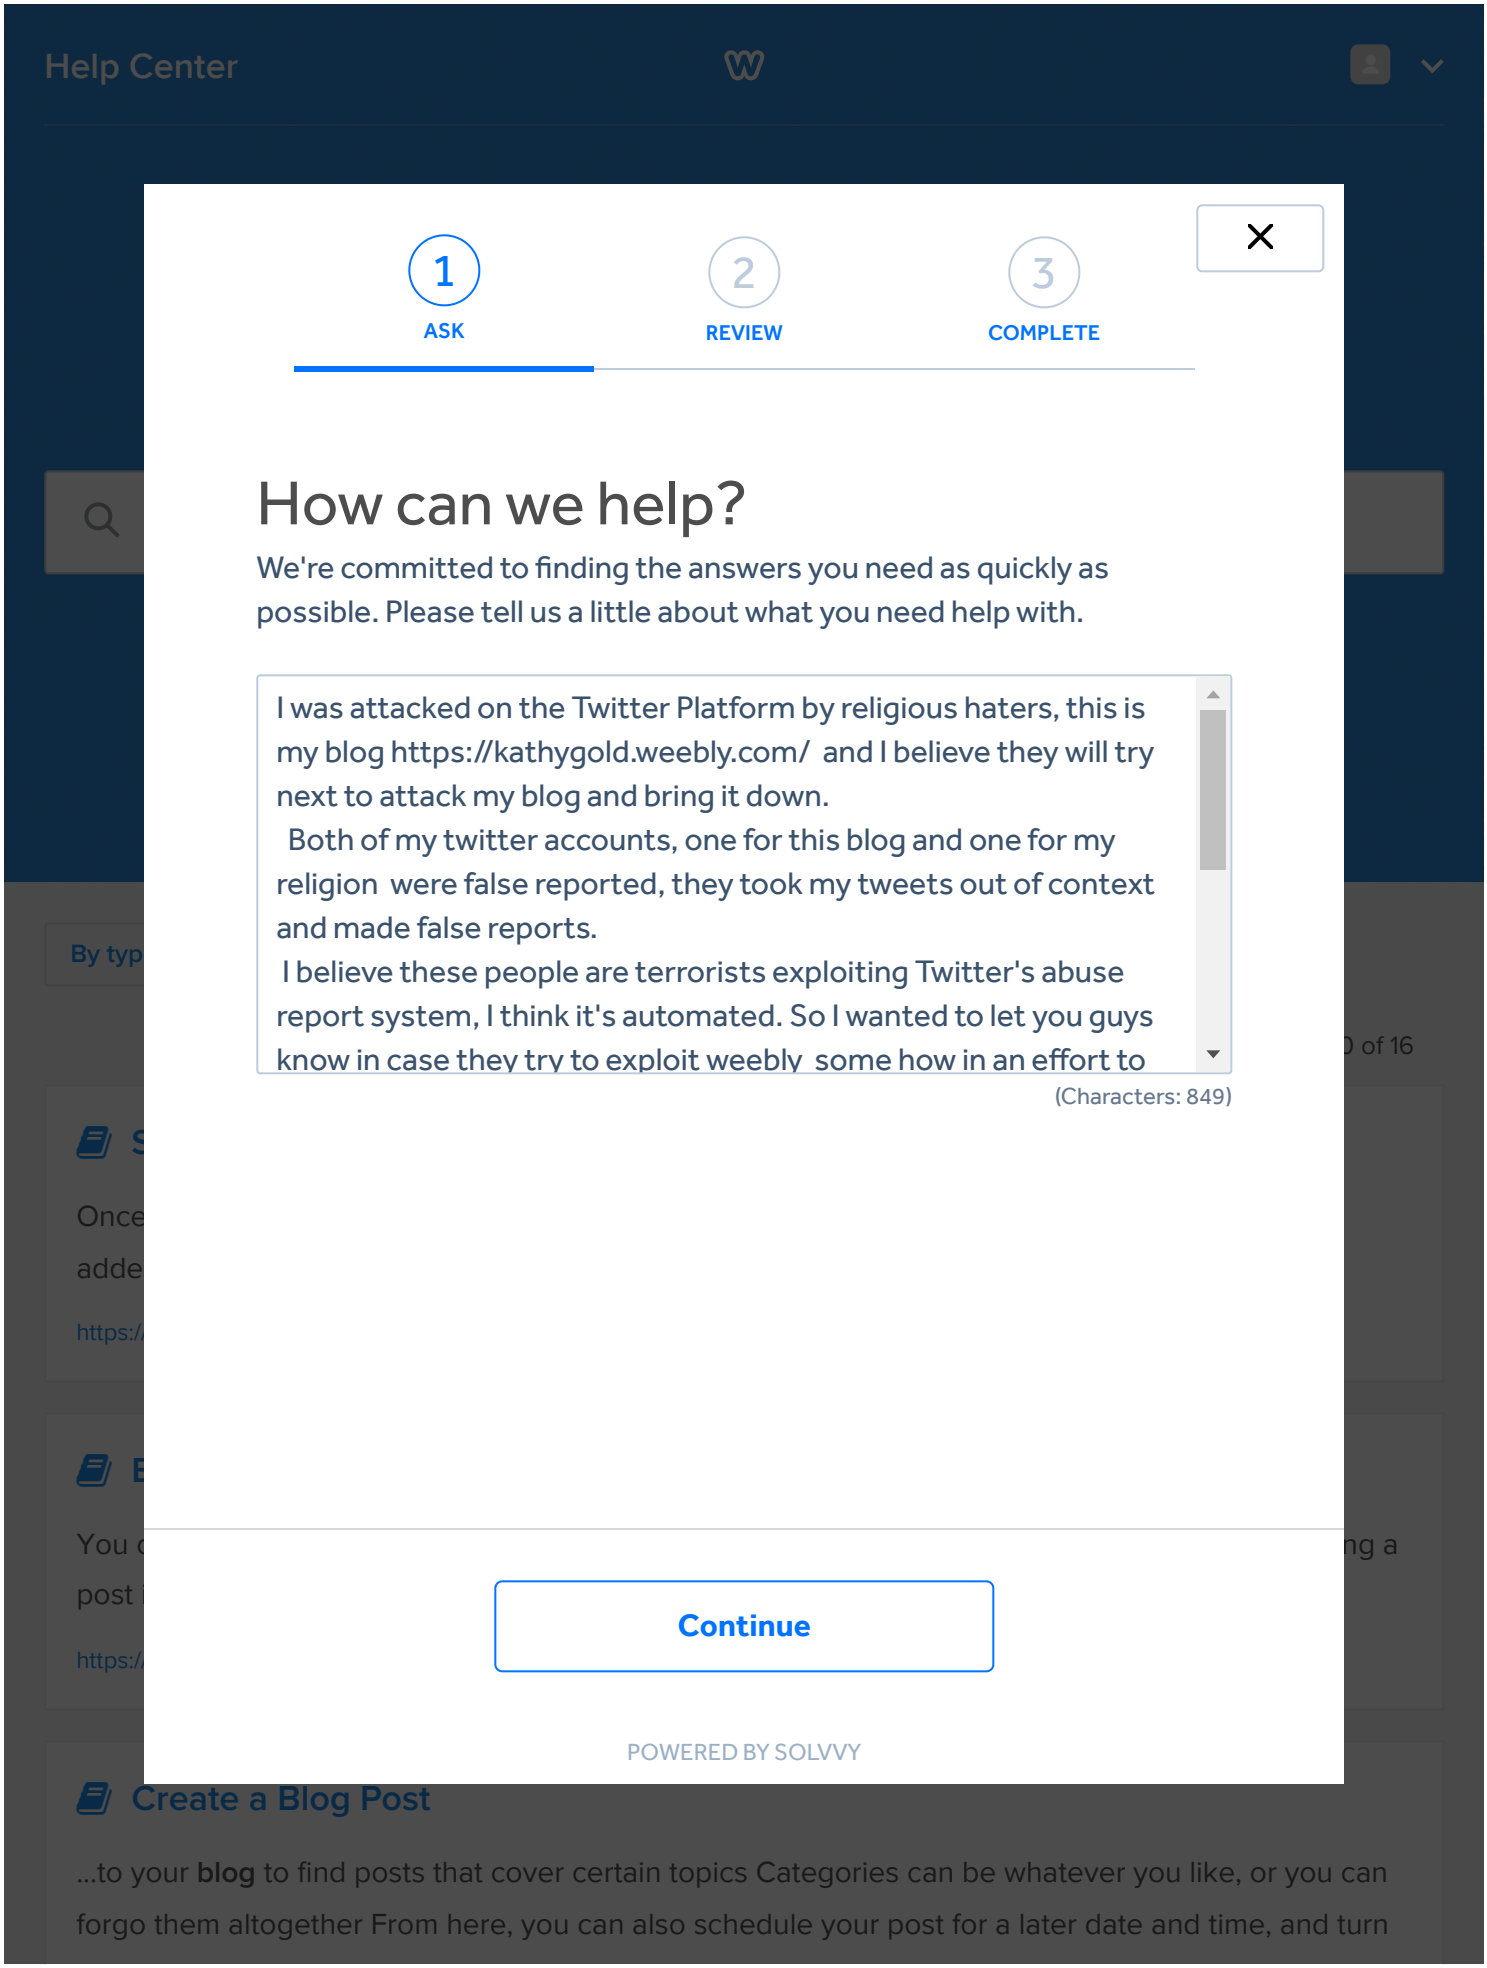

I believe these people are terrorists exploiting Twitter's abuse report system, I think it's automated. So I wanted to let you guys know in case they try to exploit weebly some how in an effort to bring down my blog and silence me.

This is me doing my due diligence in case that happens. You can also go to FedCourt.info and get familiar with my website where I'm authenticating evidence.

How can we prevent these religious haters from trying to bring down my blog based on false reports?

Thank You,

Kathy Gold

IT'S POSSIBLE CHRISSIE CARNELL BIXLER WAS IN MY HOME IN 1998 (//KATHYGOLD.WEEBLY.COM/MONEY/ITS-POSSIBLE-CHRISSIE-CARNELL-BIXLER-WAS-IN-MY-HOME-IN-1998)

9/28/2018

While I was held hostage and unconscious, she was one of many Scientologists that came in and out of my home during that time.

And it's also possible that she's on that video tape/tapes where I was naked and unconscious.

Did Chrissie Carnell Bixler sexually abuse me while I was unconscious in 1998?

She was onlines at CC Int in 1998 doing the PTS/SP course like me when she was a Scientologist.

Did I miss withholds on Chrissie Carnell Bixler when I told her my story on twitter and then she started attacking me. It's possible.

She'll be included in both Federal Lawsuits as she committed felonies on me using the twitter platform and it's possible she was in my home while I was held hostage and unconscious and that's what she's hiding, that's what I missed hence the attacks and attempts to silence me on twitter, she was afraid it would get picked up by the news and expose her.
